I, Kacey Masse, leave my obsession for the untouchables for Shannon O'Reilly.
I, Salo Salman, leave my Cape Verdian advisory position to the juniors worthy of such a position.
I, Kelly Grealish, leave all my unfinsihed homework to the underclassmen.
I, Erin Strony, leave my unfinished term papers to Carolyn Gorman.
I, Shannon McCampbell, leave the "wonderful jock" to Mallisa Andrews.
I, Heather Allen, leave my over due homework that somehow never got turned in to the lower classmen.
I, Kaitlyn Griffin leave a helping hand to the Infant/Toddler Program.

Victory is Sweet for the Tigers

Victory was sweet for the Taunton Tigers Football Team at this year's Thanksgiving Day matchup against Coyle & Cassidy. It was a record turnout at Aleixo Tiger Stadium on November 23rd, and Tiger fans were not disappointed. Taunton scorers included seniors Troy Gordon, Derek Sanchez and Kevin Fagan. A tight game for the first three quarters, Taunton was led by Offensive Player of the Game Troy Gordon, whose 140 rushing yards helped pave the path to Tiger success. The pivotal moment of the game, came with 9:57 left in the fourth quarter. Fielding a punt, Derek Sanchez proceeded to sprint an uninterrupted 72 yards to a touchdown, bringing the score to 26-13, and ensuring Tiger triumph.

Heroes Of The Game

Troy Gordon

Named Offensive Player of the Game, Tiger running back Troy Gordon was an invaluable resource to the Tigers this season. With 140 yards rushed in the first three quarters, Gordon scored three touchdowns to aid the Tiger effort.

Derek Sanchez

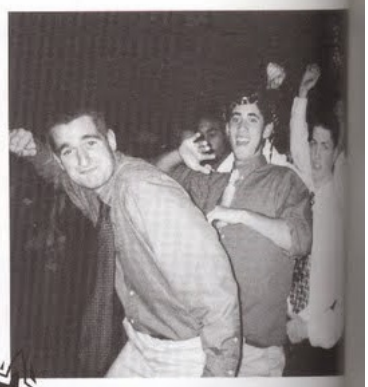

Pride and joy of the Tiger team this season, senior co-captain Derek Sanchez ended an impressive Tiger Football career with two touchdowns and secured the Tiger conquest.

Coach Brian Clemmey

"We expected a good, tough battle and we got it. This is a bigger game than most people play on Thanksgiving, so winning this is like winning a Super Bowl and makes a great season even greater."

Desiree Santos

Desiree,

To look into your eyes is to see a kindness, compassion, and beauty that most people will never achieve in a lifetime. You've looked beyond yourself and touched many people in need. Family, friends, and strangers will not soon forget your heart of gold. Enjoy your life to the fullest, taking time to stop each day and appreciate everyone and everything around you. Love yourself and let yourself be loved. Be happy, you deserve all that is great! We are proud of you!

We Love You, Mom & Dad

Jennifer Fowler

Surviving Cancer...Surviving High School

You entered our lives 18 years ago and we were never the same! Jenny, you always keep us on our toes! As you started kindergarten, you were battling leukemia. Now 12 years later, you are graduating from high school as a cancer survivor. We have always been there for you and will continue to be there. We are so proud of you and the person you have become. Wishing you much success!

Love, Mom, Dad, sisters Angie and Missy

Our Pride and Joy. May you reach for the sky and obtain it, for you certianly deserve it. The angels sang the day you were born.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Rick, Ryan, and Tori

Ranger Cookies

1 3\4 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 1\2 teaspoons baking powder
1\4 teaspoon salt
2 sticks (1 cup) unsalted butter, softened
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
2 large eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sweetened flaked coconut
1 cup old-fashioned rolled oats
2 cups cornflakes, crushed coarse

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In a bowl stir together flour, baking soda, baking powder and salt. In a large bowl with an electric mixer cream together butter and sugars until light and fluffy. Add eggs, 1 at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla and gradually stir in flour mixture until combined well. Stir in coconut, oats and cornflakes. Drop rounded teaspoons of dough about 2 inches apart onto greased baking sheets. Bake cookies in batches in middle of oven until browned lightly, 10 to 12 minutes. Transfer cookies with a metal spatula to racks to cool. Makes about 60 cookies.
